Our hope was to help engage our attendees right off the bat, increase the level of professionalism with some of our messaging and, of course, encourage them to have a little fun in the process. He did not disappoint! From the very beginning, he brought our team great ideas and suggestions to enhance the conference experience and went the extra mile to learn the details of our conference ahead of time. Onsite, he was extremely flexible to our ever-changing schedule and was such a pleasure to work with. Our survey results are just starting to roll in, and I'm already seeing positive remarks about Jeff in the comments! I would highly recommend Jeff Civillico for any conference!"

- Jim Catrambone, Director, Monsignor Bonner

#25 "Because our audience was exclusively filled with religious professionals working in higher education, it was also important that Jeff be both clean and smart, and he fit the bill in both regards. His on-stage interaction with several of our members had people weeping with laughter, yet he never crossed the line in a way that made anyone uncomfortable. In fact, many people lined up after the show to get Jeff's card so that they could invite him to their own campuses—the ultimate tribute. Jeff Civillico is a delightful and exceptionally talented performer."

- Chrysta Bolinger, Director, Member Services And Communications, Catholic Campus Ministry Association

#26 "Enthusiastic! Vibrant! Exuberant! Energetic! Hilarious! Entertaining! Those are just some of the words that describe your show. When I decided to bring you in for a big church event I had no doubt that you would entertain and engage, but I had no idea of the 'blow me away' factor you would bring. People were talking about your show for weeks, and actually made me look pretty good too, because everyone kept saying, "Where did you find that guy? He was great!" Jeff, your family-filled show was so much more than we had hoped for. And the audience participation had everyone involved from kids to adults. This was literally a show for everyone! It's hard to find shows that are as high a quality as yours that are still family-friendly. Your show wildly exceeded that expectation! When I think about my list of people that I would bring back to our church you are at the top of the list. Thanks for blowing us away!"

- Kent Rogers, Worship Pastor, Golf Course Road Church

101 Reasons to Book Jeff Civillico

#28 "Our parish recently had the privilege of having Jeff Civillico visit our parish for two events. Performing to an audience of 800 people one night and 400 people the following night, Jeff kept the audience connected and thrilled throughout his entire presentation. This was an amazing feat as his audience consisted of ages 4 to 90! Jeff is an extremely talented young man who has found a way to engage, entertain, and fill the room with laughter. He displayed over and over again absolutely amazing acts of incredible skill and wit. We were especially grateful that Jeff has chosen to do "family safe" shows that church groups can be proud of. We would recommend Jeff Civillico to anyone who wants to book a top notch, talented, and very funny entertainer. No one left our event disappointed and they still talk about it!"

- Deacon David Hendrickson, St. Dennis Parish

#29 "Jeff broke all the molds. He was fun, exhilarating, engaging. A great way to end a meeting. So I thought he might be a great way to begin something we do to kick-off our campus ministry each year at Purdue. We call it Blockbuster Weekend. Of course, my dilemma is always, will everyone else think that what I think entertaining is. Well they did! Jeff was a huge hit. Days after the event, people are still asking me - where did you find him?! What a find!? You've done it again Fr. Pat. Well I didn't. Jeff did. He's perfect for a college campus, but we also have a lot of families. They loved him too. I hope we can get him back."

- Fr. Patrick Baikauskas, OP, St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic Center at Purdue University

#30 "I had seen Jeff Civillico perform several times and knew in a world of funny entertainers, his show was at the top. His act was original, skills phenomenal, personality engaging, humor hysterical. That's why when our church decided to bring a Vegas show to Vegas locals hurt by our struggling economy, for free, we knew we wanted Jeff to be part of it. But I didn't know Jeff personally; would he be so generous that he'd do his act without pay just to serve people? Few would, but Jeff quickly agreed. Turns out that in a world of funny entertainers, his character was at the top as well. Jeff was organized, prepared and an absolutely pleasure to work with. And our people loved him and quickly became raving fans of his show."

- Vince Antonucci, Pastor, Verve Church

#31 "Wow! What a performance. The energy, excitement and your delivery to members of the Associated General Contractors, Utah Chapter was nothing less than amazing! The way you were able to engage our audience, keep them entertained and literally laughing out loud, was more than we could have ever expected. As a meeting planner for nearly 30 years, it is so nice to know that when you book an entertainer, he is truly a professional in every way. The "homework" you did in preparation for our event, the attention to detail and the way you made it easy for our staff to work with and coordinate with you and your team were just terrific. Thanks for helping make out 90th annual event such a big success. We can and will recommend you often and without hesitation."

- Associated General Contractors, Richard J. Thor, President/ CEO, Utah Chapter

#32 "Jeff Civillico entertained for our company Christmas Celebration. He was very energetic, creative and man can he juggle!!! The show was great, we liked that he involved people from the audience, both young people and adults, as everyone down deep wants to be the center of attention! He kept the audience's attention and received rave reviews from everyone... which is sometimes tough with our group. Jeff is very easy to work with and we would consider inviting him back to Nebraska anytime! We will be recommending him to other companies for entertainment."

- Gayle Sutherland, HR Manager, Allmand Bros., Inc.

#33 "We just recently wrapped up our 55th Annual Conference at Mandalay Bay Resort & Casino in Las Vegas NV. Being from Ottawa, Ontario Canada we enlisted the help from a Just Ask Where! representative to help with finding some type of entertainment for our Opening Reception. We were referred to Jeff Civillico and were told that we would not be disappointed. Jeff in turn sent us two copies of his DVDs to review his act which sold us on hiring his services for our Opening Reception to break the ice and a great start to our Convention the next day. Down to earth and laid back, it was very easy to work with Jeff and he did everything to accommodate us in our venue. He drew our delegates in and involved them in his act which was gut laughingly funny. He surely didn't disappoint and he was the conversation piece for the rest of the evening. I would recommend him without hesitation."

- Gisele Vincent, Executive Assistant, Canadian Roofing Contractor' Association

#34 "I was extremely pleased with Jeff Civillico's performance at our annual Caterpillar Electric Power Rental Meeting. This year's meeting was held at Rosen Shingle Creek in Orlando, Florida. For three days, Rosen Shingle Creek, provided the setting for a series of strategy discussions, coupled with hands-on product demonstrations for over one hundred and fifty attendees. The annual event culminated with a large group dinner and a performance by entertainer Jeff Civillico. Jeff had a great mix of audience interaction and solo stunts to provide our attendees with constant enjoyment throughout the evening. Jeff was very flexible with the start time and even adapted to some difficult wind conditions. Jeff exceeded all of our attendees' expectations and provided the perfect end to a great meeting."

- Josh Eggert, Rental Power Manager - North America, Caterpillar Inc., Electric Power North America

#35 "Jeff Civillico raises the bar as a consummate entertainer and professional master of ceremonies. The Nevada Broadcasters Association puts on a first class Hall of Fame Gala and Jeff's command of the room and ability to captivate our audience of nearly 600 was nothing short of miraculous. He quickly became an expert on the important names and unique terminology for our event which made him even more polished. Jeff is a delight to work with and brings charisma and energy to everything he does. I wholeheartedly recommend Jeff Civillico as an entertainer, a master of ceremonies and as a class-act person."

- Mary Beth Sewald, President, Nevada Broadcasters Association

- Betsy VanDeusen, Development Manager, The Animal Foundation

#41 "This was our first year having a professional Emcee and you jumped right in with almost no direction and did such a great job. Your idea to interact with our chili cooks and engage the crowd during the times you weren't needed on stage introducing bands and giving out awards was perfect. We had several sponsors comment on what an asset you were and that you truly brought a level of professionalism to our event."

- Nadia Roberts, Vice President, Events for Change, Orlando Chili Cook-Off

Being a character education program, we needed to bring someone who would be entertaining and clean. I needed to trust the entertainment for the opening event would kick our conference off with a fun event that all would enjoy. Jeff was very professional and met all the goals I was hoping for. He received very high scores on our conference evaluation. He even received a standing ovation at the end of his show! - Ariana Prazen, Program Manager, Eunice Kennedy Shriver National Center for Community of Caring

#45 "Jeff has been a tradition for our new resident orientation at Florida Hospital for the last 3 years and we expect to have him for many years to come. He brings an amazing energy to the group with his various ice breakers. He teaches residents how to juggle with scarves and then graduates them to real juggling balls. We have told our residents that they must display this skill to officially graduate the program. His charisma is magical and brings the entire group together. His show entertains everyone from a child to a retired physician. Jeff is quick-witted and energetic and creates a hysterical, family-friendly show. His presence is always our highest rated part of the orientation, I have loved working with Jeff and can't wait to plan our orientation for next year!"

- Jeanine Rule, Graduate Medical Education, Pediatric Residency Coordinator

#46 "On the day of the event he was able to easily jump in between talks of policies and procedure, giving everyone a lighthearted break and a chance to laugh...a lot. He combined topics of communication and life balance with hands on juggling lessons. Family and staff were invited to join the physicians in the evening for a social event including Jeff's full comedy show. The evening was a HUGE hit. Every single person in the room that night was engaged in the performance and weeks later his act is still the topic of discussion and laughter around the office. I highly recommend Jeff for any group event. He was wonderful to work with from my very first contact. His communication, flexibility and professionalism made my planning a breeze. Thank you again Jeff, I look forward to working with you in the future."

- Alicia Salagubang, Human Resources Coordinator, Florida Hospital

#47 "I just wanted to let you know that you were the perfect entertainer/emcee for the Tribute awards banquet at IHCA's 61st Annual Convention. During your performance, as I looked around the room, there was not one person who did not have a big smile on their face, and most were doing more than smiling...they were laughing out loud and nearly falling out of their chairs! I heard several comments afterwards about how much they enjoyed your show. You were also exemplary in your emcee duties. Hosting an event to pay tribute to the well-deserving staff and volunteers of long term care facilities is such a small gesture, so having an emcee who takes this seriously just makes it more special. I personally want to thank you for being so easy to work with. Even the video production company commented that you were the best emcee they had worked with at this event. All I can say is a great big "Thank You" from the IHCA staff and the Tribute attendees."

- Debbie Belt, Vice President Education, Illinois Health Care Association

- Marc Grad, SPHR, Senior Director Recruitment & Retention Services, VITAS Healthcare Corporation

#51 "Having seen Jeff Civillico's performance in Las Vegas, I knew that he would be perfect for the entertainment part of our annual convention. I was concerned that he couldn't replicate his Las Vegas act on a smaller stage and in a smaller setting. I assumed he couldn't bring his many props to Arkansas and would have to give us an abbreviated performance. Boy was I wrong! His Arkansas performance was the highlight of our convention and I'm still receiving compliments from our attendee. If anyone wants an endorsement have them call me and I can tell them how Jeff made me look good!"

- Lynn Zeno, Executive Vice President, Independent Insurance Agents of Arkansas

Not only did Jeff's energy wake up the audience, but he was so engaging and so involved - there wasn't a single person in the room not sitting at the edge of their seat laughing and having an absolute ball! The only bad thing about Jeff was for the speaker who had to follow him. Jeff is genuinely talented and extremely entertaining! I don't say this very often, but Jeff is actually an entertainer that is "all-things for all-people". He is universally funny & clean - no matter your age, occupation or gender - you will TRULY enjoy Jeff's show! I am already looking forward to the next time I see Jeff on stage! You are a true professional that blends physical comedy, with jokes, audience participation and excitement. The rush to book you after you performed was overwhelming! I can't tell you how impressed I was by your performance. Not only were you amazing at our Showcase, but my client who booked you for their meeting shortly after the event had nothing but rave reviews. You are a superstar at what you do Jeff, but you make those who book you look like superstars as well! I truly believe you rank among some of the best talent on the circuit these days. Thanks for making me "look good," and for making every one of your audiences leave with side aches from laughing so hard and smiles on their faces."

Jeff entertained our group at our Corporate Christmas Party and I can assure you everyone in our group had a great time. I received countless comments from our team members about how he was their favorite entertainer we have had, and actually had a few that were physically drained from laughing so much during his performance. His show was high energy, family, friendly, and had a great audience participation. I would not hesitate to recommend him personally to anyone looking for entertainment for their corporate event."

- Mark Ridley, President & CEO, Ridley's Family Markets

#65 "Atlantis Paradise Island and the Guest Activities Team would like to extend our gratitude! Your performances are spot-on and are always well received. We continue to look for great family entertainment for our guests and that is something we can definitely count on from you. Jeff, you are a joy to work with and are so very personable. You have a great stage presence; you're very talented, entertaining and at the same time continue to be very professional. It is always such a pleasure working with you."

- The Guest Activities Team at Atlantis Paradise Island

#66 "I was delighted with Jeff Civillico's performance at our annual Christmas party. Jeff presented a uniquely entertaining routine filled with youthful exuberance that demonstrated a truly extraordinary comedic talent. Jeff had been introduced to me as a "juggler." And truly he is a most talented juggler. But his juggling is merely a platform for a hilariously interactive show that engages everyone in the audience. Jeff got a much deserved standing ovation from my staff and he was so impressive that we invited him back for a repeat performance the following year. As a federal executive I needed to tread a careful line to ensure that our entertainment was in no way offensive. Jeff's show was both genuinely funny and squeaky clean. If you are looking for a truly delightful entertainer you can do no better than hire Jeff Civillico!"

- Richard Soltan, OSHA, US Department of Labor
